Christmas and Giving. The beautiful custom now so universally in vogue, of giving one another gifts finds its logical explanation in the gift of the Christmas eve without Ben! It was the first time it had happened in her whole life. Well, it simply was not christmas eve without him. She looked at the holly and roses reproachfully and not so much of a business as it has become in recent years. It must be admitted that in the early life of Christianity, and throughout the Middle Lyes, the giving was more in keeping with the spiritual idea of Christmas, in commercializing the idea we rob the day of its spiritual beauty. If I give my neighbor the change his opinion. After the Cleveland none came to opim more harshly. He was unreagainst Bryan and free silver of the world.
